MINNESOTA BULLETIN NO. 230-6-4

SUBJECT: EOP – FY 2005 MN NRCS CIVIL RIGHTS AWARDS

Purpose. To solicit nominations for the MN NRCS Civil Rights Awards.

Expiration Date. September 30, 2006.

ACTION REQUIRED BY MONDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2005

The Minnesota NRCS Civil Rights Committee is soliciting nominations for the FY 2005 Individual and Team/Group State Civil Rights Awards. Individuals or Teams/Groups who have made significant contributions in the area of civil rights during FY 2005 may be nominated.

Nominations must be submitted to Amy Stratton, MN NRCS Civil Rights Chair and postmarked by December 12, 2005. The MN NRCS Civil Rights Committee will make the final recommendation with concurrence from the State Conservationist. The MN NRCS Civil Rights Awards winners may become Minnesota's nomination to the National Civil Rights Awards.

All MN NRCS employees are invited to submit nominations. You may nominate yourself, MN NRCS employees, or partner organization employees and/or members (i.e. Soil and Water Conservation District, Resource Conservation and Development, Farm Service Agency, Rural Development, Extension or others).

Nomination instructions:

1. Include the nominees name and work address.
2. Include a narrative describing the basis for the nomination. Please address how the nominee successfully achieves one or more of the following criteria in your narrative.
 - a. Degree of personal involvement
 - b. Innovation contributing to civil rights promotion

- c. Initiatives that encourage participation of women, minorities, and people with disabilities
 - d. Degree of involvement beyond required duties and responsibilities
 - e. Impact on the community
 - f. Outcomes achieved/Results of individuals efforts
 - g. Civil rights activities outside of the workplace
3. Nominations are to be completed and signed by the person making the nomination, and a copy is to be sent to the nominee's supervisor.
4. The original signed hardcopy must be submitted to Amy Stratton, Civil Rights Chair, by December 12, 2005 (postmark date).
